PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant.

On March 28, 2024, Mr. Savala's conditions of supervision were reviewed by the probation officer and he signed said conditions acknowledging an understanding of his requirements.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

1	Special Condition #4: You must abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and must submit to urinalysis and sweat patch testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: It is alleged that Mr. Savala violated the terms and conditions of his supervised release by using methamphetamine on or about April 14, 2025.

On April 18, 2025, Mr. Savala reported to the U.S. Probation Office as directed. It was at that time he provided a urinalysis that tested presumptive positive for methamphetamine. Mr. Savala admitted to the undersigned, and via a signed document, that he last used methamphetamine on or about April 14, 2025.

2	Special Condition #4: You must abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and must submit to urinalysis and sweat patch testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: It is alleged that Mr. Savala violated the terms and conditions of his supervised release by using methamphetamine on or about April 23, 2025.

On April 24, 2025, Mr. Savala reported to the U.S. Probation Office as directed. It was at that time he provided a urinalysis that tested presumptive positive for methamphetamine. Mr. Savala admitted to the undersigned, and via a signed document, that he last used methamphetamine on or about April 23, 2025.

- 3 Special Condition #4: You must abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and must submit to urinalysis and sweat patch testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: It is alleged that Mr. Savala violated the terms and conditions of his supervised release by using methamphetamine on or about May 3, 2025.

On May 6, 2025, the undersigned reported to Mr. Savala's residence. It was at that time he admitted to the undersigned, and via a signed document, that he last used methamphetamine or about May 3, 2025.

- 4 Special Condition #4: You must abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and must submit to urinalysis and sweat patch testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: It is alleged that Mr. Savala violated the terms and conditions of his supervised release by using methamphetamine on or about May 19, 2025.

On May 22, 2025, Mr. Savala provided a urinalysis at Pioneer Human Services that tested presumptive positive for methamphetamine. Mr. Savala admitted to the undersigned that he last used methamphetamine on or about May 19, 2025.

- 5 Standard Condition # 4: You must be truthful when responding to the questions asked by your probation officer.

Supporting Evidence: It is alleged that Mr. Savala violated the terms and conditions of his supervised release by being untruthful to the undersigned's questions on May 22, 2025, in respect to his employment status.

On May 22, 2025, the undersigned spoke with Mr. Savala via telephone and questions were asked about his current employment status. Mr. Savala stated that his previously reported suspension was over and he had returned back to work and the telephone call was terminated. The undersigned and Mr. Savala spoke again via telephone approximately 13 minutes after the call was terminated and he continued to represent that he was gainfully employed though upon further questioning he ultimately admitted that he was in fact terminated from his employer and that he was just embarrassed to relay this information. Mr. Savala apologized to the undersigned about his dishonesty.
